CHEERING THOUSANDS HAIL TUNNEY AS HERO AS HE HITS NEW YORK

By JAMES L. KILGALEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
New York, April 26.—Gene Tunney came back home today like a conquering hero.

The New York "Fighting Marine," who won the world heavyweight championship from Jack Dempsey, arrived at the Pennsylvania Hotel here last night and was greeted by the cheering throngs of his old friends who had gathered to pay tribute to him.

"Hurrah for Gene! Good boy, Gene!" people in the crowd shouted as they saw Tunney coming along with the rest of the champions.

He is escorted through the gate leading into the hotel.

Outside, a band was playing and scores of automobiles lined up ready to take Tunney wherever he wished to the streets of Greatness Valley.

Tunney's first stop was to go to City Hall where the construction of the new Madison Square Garden by the city by Mayor Jimmy Walker was being celebrated.

While Tunney has been recruited as a hero Dempsey settled himself in his room at the Waldorf-Astoria City hotel.

His opponent, champion, who arrived last night with his wife, Belle, left Tunney's dressing room early this morning and Mrs. Fay Finschammer, married the crowd and made him his way to the hotel.

ber of the Governor's Council, was today declared the winner of the contest for the Democratic nomination for the House of Representatives in Ward 15, following completion of a recount.

The contest was held by James H. Harts, Jr., who originally led by 211 votes.

In the recount of Democratic Governor's Council votes, Harts, Jr. was declared the winner by 219 votes, 218 to 219 in Precinct 2, Ward 2.

Industry!

With 221 when the tally sheet in sealed ballot box showed 221 votes for Harts, Jr., the contest for the election was only 15 minutes off.

Reaction Commissioner Patrick J. Connelley, who presided over the recount, said that the sealed ballots would be taken to the Supreme Court on Tuesday in connection with the recount.

Connelley said that District Attorney Thomas C. O'Brien, who was declared the winner of the election, would be the representative of district attorney in Buffalo County.

The recount in Ward 13, District 4, was completed with a change for State representative of the Democratic ticket, O'Connor making in third position behind two winners Fitzgerald and Decker.

HUB BRIDE SEEKS TO LIFT BAN

GAVIN SEEKS TO LIFT BAN ON CATHOLICS' BEAUTY IN SWEDEN

Basil Gavin, Boston millionaire, Harvard graduate and former leader of Catholic activities, and his bride, who was Mrs. Signe B. Merrill, local fur buyer, were at home today at Millis, following their marriage at Stockholm, Sweden.

Returned a dispensation from Rome to be married by a Catholic priest because the bride is a Protestant and divorced, the couple journeyed to Sweden where they were united in a Lutheran church.

The new Mrs. Gavin informed the Boston Evening American that her husband had made efforts to obtain a dispensation, and if permission is granted in the future, they will be re-married in the Catholic Church.

In the meantime they are planning to make their home on the bride's estate in Millis, and Mrs. Gavin declared they are perfectly happy.

The romance began about four years ago, two years after the bride had abandoned a divorce from Walter Merrill, Harvard '11, well known Boston engineer.

Mrs. Merrill had originally been a shoe model, and after her divorce became a model in a Boston street shop and later a fur buyer. Mr. Gavin is a prominent business man, graduate of Harvard in the class of 1905, whose home was in South Boston.

He met beautiful "Bunny" Merrill and fell in love with her, the feeling being reciprocated, and culminating in their marriage September 7. "I can't say why anybody should be married in all this," said the new Mrs. Gavin. "This is nothing out of the ordinary."

Plainfield Santa Treasurer Will Lose 'Loans'

Plainfield's "good" "fellow" treasurer, A. N. Gurney, 59, who dived into his pocket to the extent of $5,000 for town expenses, is "out of luck" unless the taxpayers wish to shoulder a load of about $25 in their tax rate next year. It was stated today by Theodore N. Wadell, director of accounts in the State department of corporations and taxation.

Director Wadell said he would oppose any move to pay Gurney interest, saying his loans were not authorized and the meeting had not voted to borrow the money.

For many years Plainfield has enjoyed a tax rate of 2 1/2, because the aged treasurer spent his own money for town interests.

"My husband tried to get permission for our marriage in the Catholic church. He went to apostolic delegate in Washington and even sent a messenger to Sweden to see if we could be married by a Catholic priest there."

"He was told that it would be impossible. We waited for the permission as long as we possibly could but our case seemed hopeless so we decided to get married anyway."

"I wanted to be married near my family who are in Linshadt, Sweden, so we went there. Mr. Gavin went over first and I followed him. Then we went to Stockholm and were married in a little Lutheran church by a Lutheran minister."

"After the ceremony we took a trip to Norway, and then returned to this country, arriving here last night. If we ever get permission, we will be married again in the Catholic Church. In the meantime we are perfectly happy and only wish to be left alone."

COOLIDGE $2,000,000 SEES ARMS PLANS FAIL APPLETON

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 25 (A.P.)—The seventh assembly of the League of Nations, which convened September 16, adjourned tonight.

Washington, Sept. 25 (A.P.)—The United States is in sympathy with any effort to reduce armaments, but President Coolidge would like to know more about the exact nature of the conference proposed at Geneva for that purpose by the League of Nations Assembly before considering American participation.

The resolution adopted unanimously by the assembly provided for the convocation of a general conference of the League of Nations to be held next September.

President Coolidge is anxious to assist it was emphasized at the White House, but there can be no question of his disappointment over the results of the preliminary armaments conference.

There is grave doubt whether America would participate in the general conference if it include the discussion of purely naval affairs by representatives of non-navy nations.

The United States would not interfere of all powers on navy matters, regardless of whether their navy forces were substantial or small, as calculated to obtain the desired results, the White House made clear, and the answer of the American government to any invitation to participate in such a gathering first must be affected by this consideration.

An estate of well over $2,000,000 was left by Samuel Appleton of Marlboro street, for many years United States manager of the Employers' Liability Insurance Company, whose will was filed today in Suffolk Probate Court.

The bulk of the estate goes to his daughter, Miss Maude B. Appleton, Charlotte Pierce, a granddaughter of Miss Appleton and for many years considered as one of the Appleton family is bequeathed $400,000. While the exact amount of the estate is not given, the estate of Miss Appleton, who has been named executrix, are $2,000,000, showing that the estate is in excess of that sum.

Miss Pierce is the daughter of the late Charles H. Pierce of New Bedford and former treasurer of the New Bedford Institution for Savings.

Meet John Mahaney, veteran lineman of the Holy Cross eleven, who plays a whale of a game at tackle. He is out for the team again this year much to the despair of many less able candidates.

PROGRESS HIS WATCHWORD
This is Paul Kittridge, halfback of the Holy Cross eleven of last season, who is making a hard fight to fill a regular position in the backfield array of the Worcester aggregation.

FLANK POSITION HIS AMBITION
Anthony Karpowitch, an aspirant for a wing position on the Holy Cross eleven, is said to possess all the requisites such as speed, keen perception and ability to handle ball cleanly.

CANDIDATE FOR BACKFIELD
Here is another member of the flashy Purple eleven. Henry Shanahan, who hopes to get into the game against the Naval Training School of Newport and establish himself as a permanent part of the Holy Cross backfield.

WILLIE SHERDELL

Tunney's Mother and Sisters Think Boxing "Disgraceful"

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The hardest battle fought by Gene Tunney, the heavyweight boxing champion, is still to come.
More harrowing than his contest with Jack Dempsey by which he won his crown will be the struggle to convince his family that his accomplishment was something to be proud of.

Although Tunney's father is world-wide, his mother, Mrs. Mary Tunney, and his sisters, Margaret, Anna, and Rose, who accompa nyed him to the fight, are all of the opinion that his career is disgraceful.

To them Gene's feat in beating the hitherto invincible Jack Dempsey, brought nothing but unbearable "punch fight notoriety."
It was a hollow victory as far as Tunney's woman folk were concerned, and all his courage, pertinacity and skill will be required to change their opinion.

Secluded in the house which Gene bought about a year ago in Spartanburg, S. C., Tunney and her daughters have refused to dis cuss the battle. Although called to the door frequently to receive telegrams of congratulations, they would not talk to reporters.

To them the title of heavyweight boxing champion of the world is apparently as welcome in the family circle as a wet dog.

Since the lamentable world's series of 1919 between the Chicago
Black Sox and the Cincinnati Reds,

Furnishing the Home

By Marian Moore

SOME one's cozy corner that must get a lot of patronage in Winter weather! And the beauty of this grouping, as I see it, is that there is nothing here that is beyond the means of the average home! The fireplace and the built-in shelves, of course, are architectural attributes that not every home has and they lend exceptional charm to the setting. But the gift of friendly beds about size 12 is possible in just

A WIFE'S MEDITATIONS

By Helen Rowland

A BENEDICT man won't eat anything that disagrees with him, no matter how enticing it may look—but he'll MARRY it without a whimper.

"Sex-appeal" is getting to be almost as obsolete and superfluous as hatpins and petticoats.

A man who smokes cigarettes is apt to take women lightly—to light one flame from the dying embers of another. A man who smokes cigars is usually solid and good for a long run of marriage, but inclined to be a little ponderous. But a man who smokes a pipe is, somehow, always comforting and thoroughly situated.

Why is it that when a man makes his photographer shy, he feels like a brute—but when he drives his wife to tearful hysteria, he feels like a martyr?

It shows how vitally fascinating men really must BE that they can't wait before taking such a step. If you can possibly imagine being happy without each other, it will be well to give up the marriage.

Your fiancé, however, is old enough to choose his own wife. If after careful consideration to the matter, you are both convinced that your love is deep enough and big enough withal to overcome all obstacles, there is a chance that you may be very happy in your marriage. But take time—do not act hastily.

ADVICE TO LOVELORN

By Beatrice Fairfax

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I am twenty years old and have been keeping company with a young gentleman twenty-two years old. I am a foreigner, while he is an American.

His parents object strongly to our marriage, threatening to disinherit him. We both are desperately in love.

Please advise me what to do.

M. A. R.

IN marrying one of different nationality, my dear, there are always great risks and disadvantages. You and your husband would have a different viewpoint on almost every question, including perhaps religion.

Your background is utterly different from his. To think long and well before taking such a step. If you can possibly imagine being happy without each other, it will be well to give up the marriage.
